Wild game butcher scraps

- Scraps from butchering wild game are gratefully accepted
- Fat, hides, and bones from wild game are accepted for enrichment

Beef butcher scraps

- Beef butcher scraps and organs are accepted with prior approval
- We are not able to utilize beef fat, hides, or whole skeletons

Horns and antlers are accepted for enrichment

Whole animals – native prey

- Deer and elk gratefully accepted
 - Must be within 24 hours of animal's death (unless refrigerated / frozen)
 - No wild or domestic animals can have consumed any part of the carcass (this is very important to avoid disease transmission)
- Rabbits only accepted from USDA or USFWS partners to avoid transmission of deadly hemorrhagic disease
- Whole fish are accepted with prior approval (to ensure we can eliminate any potential parasites through freezing)
- Game birds are currently not accepted due to avian influenza precautions

Whole animals – livestock

- Whole cow donations accepted with prior approval if arrangements can be made to butcher the freshly deceased animal into storable portions at Wolf Haven's expense (maximum 50 pounds per portion)
- Whole poultry, sheep, goats, and horses are not accepted
